IMPACT: State & Local

Summary of Legislation: (Amended) This bill establishes the Interim Study Committee on Vehicle Registration Suspension and Forfeiture of License Plates. It requires the Committee to study issues related to drivers who have had driving privileges suspended, and the reissuance of motor vehicle license plates under certain conditions.

Effective Date: July 1, 2005.

Explanation of State Expenditures: (Revised) This bill establishes the Interim Study Committee on Vehicle Registration Suspension and Forfeiture of License Plates. Specific membership has not been established. The committee is to operate under the policies governing study committees adopted by the Legislative Council. Legislative Council resolutions in the past have established budgets for interim study committees in the amount of $8,000 per interim for committees with fewer than 16 members and $15,000 for committees with 16 or more members.

The Committee is to study:

- (1) the means by which the registration of license plates for a motor vehicle registered to an individual who has had a suspension of the individual's driving privileges under IC 9-30-5 may be suspended and the license plates subject to forfeiture as an additional penalty; and
- (2) the method by which a reinstatement of the registration and a reissuance of the license plate may be made, upon application, by a member of the individual's household who possesses a valid driver's license.
